Quest International Accepted Into the UN Global Compact

IRVINE, Calif., April 27, 2021 – Quest International, Inc. announced today their acceptance as a Participant of the United Nations Global Compact initiative, a platform dedicated for the development, implementation and disclosure of responsible business practices, increasing corporate sustainability and advancing broader societal goals. With this announcement, Quest International, Inc. is proud to join the United Nations Global Compact as committed participant to taking responsible business action to create the world we all want.

The United Nations Global Compact is the world's largest corporate social sustainability initiative with the objective of mobilizing a global movement towards supporting UN goals. The UN Global Compact is a principle-based framework for businesses, stating ten principles concerning the Human Rights, Labour, The Environment, and Anti-Corruption.

Quest International has historically been and continues to be dedicated to social responsibility, this includes implementation of the ISO 14001 Environmental standard covering environmental management systems and sustainability best practices. Quest began pursuing ISO 14001 in 2010, and has held the certification since, further aligning itself with the objectives of the UN Global Compact.

"We are honored to be accepted into the UN Global Compact. Their mission and goals are consistent with what we've been practicing for decades, and we look forward to learning new ways to enhance sustainability for our company and our customers around the world." - Shawn Arshadi, President and CEO
